—Mr. John McDonald has returned from his trip as a delegate to the fifth annual session of the Catholic Knights of St. John, which met in Rochester N. Y. Forty-five commanderies were represented, including, of course, Jackson commandery, No. 26.

—Misses Laura Lee Allard, Laura and Ida Frasier, the latter Music Teacher at St. Margaret's Hall, left for their home in Paducah, Ky., where they will spend the vacation. We regret very much to part with them as they have made many warm friends in our city.

—Circuit Court convened Monday. By agreement of attorneys, and consent of Judge Wharton, only a few important civil cases will be considered this term. The criminal docket will be taken up next Monday, and on disposal of same the Court will adjourn.

—Seutter has reduced the price of card photographs to $2.50 per dozen; cabinet, or imperial size, $5.00 per dozen. But while the prices of his work go down, the quality continues to go up. These reduced prices are until August 1st.

—Other engagements prevented our attendance upon the closing exercises, last week, of St. Peter's Parochial School, and St. Joseph's School, but with pleasure we record the general verdict of all who witnessed them, that they were entertaining and highly creditable.

—The Zion Friends excursion to Natchez on Saturday last was not a financial success. There were too many managers, and too many cars for the crowd. The excursion season is about over for 1883. Let us have a rest until State fair week.

—Deputy Sheriff Wm. J. Brown, Jr., after an absence of two weeks at Taylor's Springs, near Waynesboro, has returned to his post much improved in health. After adjournment of Circuit Court, he will return to the Springs, the waters and general surroundings of which are only to be tested to be appreciated.

—We learn that the Jackson Compress Co., have placed their work of rebuilding in the hands of the Shickle, Harrison and Howard, Iron Co., of St. Louis, that the work is progressing rapidly, and will be most thorough and complete. The press will be ready for work by the first of September, and a large business is confidently expected.

—List of Grand Jurors for the July term 1883 Circuit Court Hinds county: J. W. Fite, Foreman, Jim King, Wm. Rudd, Napoleon Cooker, T. C. Wright, Harris Johnson, A. C. Milligan, A. G. Jones, C. B. Winslow, Sect., Jake Wonders, A. L. Brunson, Jim Griffin, W. J. Davis, J. S. Ware, J. M. Shaw, Jno. G. Patrick, T. L. Thomas, F. C. Nelson, Sect., W. R. Hemphill and John Thomas.

—Hon. J. M. Smylie, Commissioner of Swamp Lands, has returned from Washington. During this last visit he succeeded in having claims of Mississippi, on account of lands, audited to the amount of $51,000.00. There is still a very large sum due, and we have no doubt he will succeed in getting every dollar of it. He has done a great work for the State, of which we have no doubt the next Legislature will make suitable recognition.

—Vicksburg Post: Messrs. Murray E. Smith, John D. Gilland, and H. C. McCabe were appointed by the Circuit Court to examine Mr. Charles Preston Winkley, for admission to the bar. The committee reported that he had passed a good examination, and he was accordingly issued a license to practice law in all the courts in the State of Mississippi. Mr. Winkley is a young man of rare accomplishments and has gained his profession for himself.

—The Southern Express Company having leased the room on Capitol street heretofore occupied by Robertson & Wonders, two of the barber shops have been consolidated in the room under Angelo's Hall. We are pleased to note that such papers as the "Police Gazette," and "Day's Doings" are to be superseded on their tables, by more wholesome literature. The Government should not allow such obscene stuff to pass through the mails.

—The visit of Protection Fire Company, No. 3, to Jackson, on Wednesday last, made things lively among the firemen. The Gem and West Jackson boys availed themselves of this excellent opportunity to reciprocate the many courtesies extended to them on their visits to Natchez. They squared the account very handsomely. A dinner at Angelo's Hall, given by the Gem Company, and supper in the hall of West Jackson Fire Company, were among the most enjoyable incidents of the day.

—A magnificent life size crayon picture of Dr. Harrington's little son, Ethelbert, is on exhibition at the Drug Store of Drs. Hunter and Harrington. It was executed from a photograph by Mr. John Craig of Dayton, Ohio, and can not be excelled in the perfect beauty of its execution, nor in its fidelity to the original. Connoisseurs pronounce it, a perfect picture. Orders left at the store of Drs. H. & H. will be promptly forwarded to the artist.

—Just before going to press the sad intelligence reached us of the death of Mary Spengler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Antoine Spengler aged 12 years, of inflammation of the bowels. Little Mary was a girl of unusually bright mental qualities, and only a week since at the Sisters Exhibition took a leading part in the closing exercises of the school. To the sorrowing household the hearts of all go out in sympathy and condolence. May he who said "Suffer little children to come unto me, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven" give them comfort and consolation in this their sad hour of bereavement.

—We call attention to the card in this issue of Mr. T. A. Her, jeweller and dealer in gold and silver ware, of all kinds usually kept in a first-class jewellers establishment. He keeps always on hand a first-class grade of watches, clocks, etc. All kinds of repairing will be promptly and carefully attended to and done at reasonable prices. Mr. Her is a first-class jeweller—too well known to our citizens to need any commendation at our hands. He not only promises good work but guarantees entire satisfaction. Call and see his assortment of clock, watches, chains, jewelry, silver ware, etc., and judge for yourselves.

—The Natchez Democrat says that the members of Protection No. 3, who participated in the excursion to this city last week, speak in the very highest terms of their reception and treatment by the firemen and people of the State capital. And in that connection mentions that the ladies who accompanied the firemen were not neglected. They were met by a committee of Jackson ladies who dined them, and did everything in their power to make their stay agreeable and pleasant for all of which the Natchez ladies are most grateful. Our firemen and citizens, ladies and gentlemen, were all delighted with their guests from the Bluff city, and hope they will come again.

—Central Lodge, No. 764, Knights of Honor, celebrated the tenth anniversary of the Order, at Odd Fellows' Hall last Saturday night. The room was well filled by members of the Order and their families, and invited guests. Past Dictator C. A. Brougher delivered an address, in which he recounted the origin and progress of the Order, now embracing a membership of more than one hundred thousand, and having disbursed ten millions of dollars to its beneficiaries. The address was full of valuable information, and very practical throughout. Refreshments, in great bounty, were served, and after some choice songs by Bro. Skellinger, at eleven o'clock, the Dictator, Dr. Byron Lemly, declared the pleasant occasion at an end. Central Lodge has a membership of about one hundred and thirty, with accessions at nearly every meeting.

St. Margaret's Hall.

The commencement exercises of this popular school came off Wednesday last, and as our contemporaries have all anticipated us in giving the details, they would be a thrice-told tale to the public. Suffice it to say, that the exercises were all that the friends of the institution could desire. The performances were admirable. Gold medals were awarded to Miss Alma Eyrich and Miss Ethel Hughes, in their respective classes. For class standing, medals were awarded Misses Bessie Hart, Rosa Hart, Nellie Kautler, Delphine Levy, Willie Atkinson, Mary Wolfe, Alma Eyrich, Louise Newcomer, for instrumental music, Miss Mary Wolfe; for vocal music, Miss Sallie Wolfe. A gold medal in the senior class, was awarded Miss Louise Montgomery. Miss Laura Allard received a prize for neatness and tidiness. The salutatory of Miss Mary E. Barr, the essay of Miss Estelle Daniels, and the Valedictory of Miss Louise Montgomery were splendid compositions, well delivered. They were literally deluged with floral gifts. The singing was admirable. We wish we could particularize, but can't refrain from mentioning the Misses Wolfe and Miss Willie Atkinson. Little Miss Hester was crowned the most popular pupil; and little Miss Carrie Sidway recited a poem that took the house by storm. The diplomas to the graduating class were presented by Col. Hooker. Miss Fraser has established herself in public esteem as an accomplished teacher of music. The instrumental accompaniments of Messrs. Ware, Hunter and Nelson added greatly to the entertainment.

Closing Exercises Central Female Institute

JACKSON, MISS., June 10, 1883.

EDITORS CLARION: A brief account of the Commencement Exercises of Central Female Institute will no doubt interest a fair proportion, at least, of your many readers. It was my good fortune to witness the interesting closing exercises, and so pleased am I with what I heard and saw, that I feel many times compensated for the time spent in attendance.

Arriving at the little town of Clinton, which, however, is a full grown seat of learning, with its two institutions, the College and Institute, numbering together nearly four hundred pupils, I was taken vi et armis by Dr. and Mrs. Hillman to their hospitable, comfortable home, and there cared for in a manner which will be well appreciated by all who have shared their generous hospitality.

A tour through the building showed a great increase in the

FACILITIES FOR INSTRUCTION

Since my last visit there, now some six years ago, I was especially pleased to note the large additions recently made to the Museum and the Library, both valuable adjuncts to educational work. The Institute is constantly enlarging its facilities for thorough instruction. A most important addition has recently been made to the course of instruction in the organization of an INDUSTRIAL, OR BUSINESS DEPARTMENT, where such as choose to do so, can take a course in Telegraphy and Book-keeping, in addition to their regular studies. It is intended to encourage an enlargement of the sphere of female occupations, which is now so contracted that many ladies, thrown upon their own resources, find much difficulty in obtaining remunerative employment suited to their condition and strength. Telegraphy is practically taught here by Miss Fannie Halbert, of Terry, who has a thorough knowledge of the subject. A line connects the rooms of the Institute with the depot, and thus with the outside world.

I will not attempt to give a detailed account of the various examinations; suffice it to say that the pupils acquitted themselves with credit and honor, and displayed a thorough knowledge of the subjects discussed.

THE ADDRESS TO THE LITERARY SOCIETIES

of the College and Institute was delivered by Hon. A. H. Longino, a graduate of the College, and now a popular State Senator. It is needless to add that the address was an intellectual treat, doing full credit to the speaker and the occasion.

THE UNDERGRADUATES EXHIBITION of the Institute occurred on Wednesday, and was witnessed by a very large audience—but the Institute exercises always draw a crowded house. Essays, recitations, and dialogues made up the programme, and afforded several hours of entertainment. The audience seemed particularly pleased with the dialogues. They were very happy selections, and each young lady who took part showed a proper conception of the character assumed. During a brief intermission, the young ladies, as the boys would say, were "turned loose," and the young men enjoyed the rare and much coveted privilege of talking to them. As usual they made good use of the time.

THE ANNUAL CONCERT

Wednesday night attracted the largest crowd of all the exercises. These concerts are noted as musical treats, and one having enjoyed them once feels a strong inclination to witness each annual recurrence. Prof. Menger, the accomplished Professor of Music, has been connected with the Institute for twenty-nine years, and to his skill is attributed the high excellence of these entertainments. I come now to the THIRTIETH ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT, and the fact that the Institute has prospered through peace and war for thirty years, without interruption, is a high tribute to those who have controlled its destinies, and a source of gratification and pride to friends of education throughout this and other States. The graduating class consisted of the following: Miss Rena B. Cox, Clinton; Miss Emma Dodds, Hazlehurst; Miss Ollie Fletcher, Clinton; Miss Mollie J. Granberry, Midway; and Miss M. Lorena Montgomery, Meadville. These young ladies all acquitted themselves creditably, and gave strong evidence of thorough preparation for the active duties of life. Last, but by no means least, came the

at the Institute. And it was truly a dinner calculated to satisfy the most exacting connoisseur. The table from one end of the dining hall to the other, fairly groined with all the delicacies of the season. One hundred and fifty guests partook of the sumptuous repast. After sometime spent in refreshing the inner man, we all repaired to the Institute chapel, where the Alumnae Association, presided over by Miss Lizzie Menger, with Miss Fannie Halbert, Secretary, was called to order. Interesting letters were read from absent members, and brief addresses made by gentlemen present, including Rev. Dr. Hunter of this place. Miss Kate V. Lusk of Clinton, read a most admirable address, sparkling with rare gems of thought, which I trust will be published in some widely circulated journal.

This closed one of the most pleasant and interesting commencements of one of the oldest and best equipped Female Institutes in the South. A. B. H.

WHARTON—MENGES—At the residence of the bride's father, Prof. Menger, Clinton, Miss, July 1, 1883, by Dr. Walter Hillman, Prof. Geo. Wharton, Mississippi College, to Miss Lizzie H. Menges, teacher in Central Female Institute.

Kosciusko Star: From Capt. Isaac Peeler we learn that a portion of Leake county and in his neighborhood, in this county, an insect very much like the cotton louse has made its appearance on the oat crop, and that in Leake county several head of mules have been killed by eating the oats with the insect on them. He says, however, after the oats become dry the lice disappear.
